CAMP CORRAL SPONSORS CHILDREN'S FUN DAY AT NATIONAL DAV CONFERENCE

Organization Previews Summer Camp for Children of Wounded, Disabled or Fallen Military Families on August 10th in Orlando

For the first time in 92 years, DAV (Disabled American Veterans) national convention is offering activities specifically for veterans' children attending their annual event. Camp Corral Children's Fun Day will be set up in the Championsgate Room of the Orlando Hilton Resort.

WHO: Camp Corral, a one-of-a-kind summer camp for military children with a wounded, disabled or fallen military parent, joins forces with DAV, the most long-lasting veterans advocacy and assistance group in this country.

WHAT: Camp Corral will host a full day of "camp-style" fun and activities for children of all ages. The Camp Corral Children's Fun Day at the DAV national convention will include camp games and energizers; costumes and skits; camp songs; dancing and juggling; arts & crafts and a lot of laughter.

WHEN: Saturday, August 10, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

WHERE: National DAV Convention, Championsgate Room of the Orlando Hilton Resort
